On February 29th, at 7 p.m. at Greenwood Features, 269 Greenwood Avenue, Bethel Arts will host a reception for artist Marcus Escibano, a resident of Danbury. He received a BA in Photography and a MFA in Interdisciplinary Visual Art from WCSU. He studied abroad at the Rome Art Program and was invited to return as a visiting artist and instructor. Marcus has also taught art classes at Harambee Youth Center in Danbury and as a Graduate Teaching Assistant at WCSU.

Marcus' work has been exhibited in gallery's and on-line exhibitions worldwide. He was recently represented by NYC gallery Artifact at Miami Art Basel. His work is currently being shown in South Korea, one of his paintings has been selected for the permanent collection of the Yukyung Art Museum. His work is also in the collection of the Danbury Fair Mall and has been published in British Vogue Gallery and Vanity Fair U.K.

THE IRISH TENORS 25TH ANNIVERSARY TOUR

From Radio City and Carnegie Hall, to The Hollywood Bowl and The Sydney Opera House, The Irish Tenors have performed in many of the finest venues in the world. Their faces and voices are familiar to America from their five PBS specials and 10 top-selling albums, including their memorable performance on Ellis Island, which sold more than one million copies.

The Irish Tenors' powerful vocal line-up includes Anthony Kearns, Ronan Tynan and Declan Kelly. All classically trained singers, each having performed in leading concert halls across the world, together they combine to produce a sound and concert experience which touches hearts and stirs the emotions. As gifted interpreters of a wide range of material, from contemporary American songs to Irish folk ballads "Danny Boy," "Whiskey in the Jar" and "Fields Of Athenry," The Irish Tenors carry on the tradition of Celtic music through their worldwide 25th Anniversary Tour.
